

It's that time of year again. Delinquent property taxes are a problem, for both the property owner and the municipality. When property taxes don't get paid, schools, hospitals and other very important municipal services aren't being funded.

If your property taxes are in default you can expect to see a letter come to your mail this time of year outlining your rights and the processes you can take to make the debt right.

This year the Town has asked McLennan Ross to prepare the collection letters on our behalf. You may contact the Town to make payment arrangements;
