GENERAL TERMS AND CONDITIONS

28. A Licence Holder shall immediately notify the Senior Administrative Officer if a Lottery is not conducted, managed or operated in accordance with this by-law.
29. A Licence Holder may cancel a Bingo or Casino before the start of the first non-Share the Wealth Bingo game. A Licence Holder may cancel a Raffle before the draw date. The Licence Holder shall cancel a Lottery if, by the end of the Lottery, the Licence Holder will not have sufficient funds to award all prizes specified in the Licence.

30. Where it is determined by the licence holder that there are insufficient bingo players to show a fifteen (15%) profit of the gross proceeds on a bingo, not including Nevada ticket sales, the bingo event may be cancelled. This is to be done prior to the first call. Any organization that proceeds with a bingo and does not make sufficient profit may have future applications denied.
31. If it is determined that a bingo is to be cancelled the following events must occur:
 - (a) Nevada ticket sales are to be shut down immediately.
 - (b) All players fees such as entrance fee/master card, extra cards and half the house are to be refunded.
 - (c) A statement of account is to be submitted as per usual within (15) days of event.
32. A Licence Holder shall award all prizes specified in the application for a licence and shall not reduce, decrease or substitute the specified prizes unless authorized by an amendment to the Licence or a specific condition of the Licence.
33. In the event that a Lottery is cancelled, the Licence Holder shall immediately refund all fees, except fees for Nevada Tickets and Share the Wealth Bingos already sold.
34. The Senior Administrative Officer, if he or she is not satisfied that certain costs are necessary for a Lottery, may disallow any costs including:
 - (a) rent for using the Licence Holder's premises;
 - (b) the transfer to any Person of a direct or indirect gain or assisting with a Lottery, except:
 - (i) reasonable fees paid to a Bingo caller; or
 - (ii) as allowed as a condition of the Licence, if the Senior Administrative Officer is satisfied that a Licence Holder requires assistance to conduct, manage or operate the Lottery.

35. A Licence Holder shall not allow an Authorized Representative, a Bingo caller, or a Person who performs a raffle draw to participate as a player.
36. A Licence Holder shall ensure that advertising for a Lottery states the Licence number.

BINGOS

37. An application for a bingo shall contain the following information:
 - (a) the charitable or religious object or purpose for which the bingo will be conducted;
